Event Results Round 17

San Ysidro, NM December 6, 2009

The New Mexico Trials Association held its final event December 6, 2009, at San Ysidro. Only 45 riders braved the cold weather—a small turnout for our club. The Nafus clan put in time laying out great sections, with points coming in low for the Lower Classes, and perfect for the Upper Classes. Thank you Bobby, Brandon, Tyler and Josh for a great event. Upper Classes rode first this time—which can happen at any time, but is rare.

For those who were fearful of the weather, you missed a cold day, but it did not snow; and you missed a very fun event. If you didn't show because you were otherwise obligated—what's up, isn't trials your primary passion?

The 2009 season is complete, and the best 14 events are tallied. Come to the Awards Banquet January 23 for some good eating and tall tales with friends. The week after the Banquet is the first event of 2010. January 31 was chosen so the trial would not interfere with the Super Bowl.

Many of you have sent your 2010 NMTA membership applications. If you have not, another is enclosed in this newsletter, and the 2010 secretary will appreciate that you have completed it—whoever that may be (not me!). Thanks for everyone's support during this stint as secretary. Who will the next secretary be? President? Permit Coordinator? Trev-Dog has expressed interest in returning as Upper Clerk. Chris Porter is interested in Lower Clerk. Chris Johnson wants to be treasurer. Come nominate someone and vote at the banquet.
